

A Typical NFTY Weekend

While all regions offer their own unique programs and traditions, each NFTY weekend events (Kallot, Retreats, Events, etc.) provide a magical meaningful Shabbat experience filled with worship, learning, laughter, and socializing.

NFTY weekend events revolve around a theme in Reform Judaism. Themes vary from social justice issues presented in Torah to those contemporary issues affecting twenty-first century; the possibilities are endless! Look at the sample schedule below to get a sense of a weekend's structure.

Friday Evening / Erev Shabbat

4:00 pm	Arrival and Registration
5:00 pm	New Members Meeting followed by Event Kick-off
6:45 pm	Aruchat Erev (Dinner)
8:00 pm	Mixers
8:45 pm	Shabbat Services
9:45 pm	Tochnit (Program)
10:45 pm	Siyyum (Bedtime Sh'ma) followed by Canteen/Snack
11:15 pm	Laila Tov! (Good Night!)

Saturday / Shabbat

7:15 am	Boker Tov (Good Morning!)
8:00 am	Aruchat Boker (Breakfast)
9:15 am	T'filah (Shabbat Morning Services)
10:30 am	Torah Study or Beit Midrash program
11:30 am	Guest Speaker or NFTY Program Presentation
12:15 pm	Aruchat Tzohoriyim (Lunch) and Shira (Song Session)
1:15 pm	Tochnit II (Program II)
2:45 pm	Asefah (Plenary Meeting)
4:15 pm	Tochnit III (Program III)
5:15 pm	Nikayon (Shower time)
6:30 pm	Aruchat Erev (Dinner)
7:30 pm	Tochnit IV (Program IV)
8:30 pm	Havdalah
9:15 pm	Evening Program/Entertainment
10:30 pm	Service Auction/ Siyyum followed by Canteen/Snack
11:45 pm	Laila Tov! (Good Night!)

Sunday

7:45am	Boker Tov (Good Morning)
8:45am	Aruchat Boker (Breakfast)
9:45am	Friendship Circle
12:00pm	Buses depart