Class of 2020

The Last Will and Testament of Katie Bohall

To anyone who remembers me as a freshman, I am so sorry. I was very awkward. With that in mind, I owe most of my glow up to NFTY PAR. Through NFTY I learned to be a leader, how to actually speak, how to be confident, how to have my own beliefs, and how to be a somewhat responsible human. Thank you to Stacey, Anne, Amanda, and the Jamies for being amazing role models and mentors in NFTY. To all NFTY underclassmen, don't take your years here for granted. Appreciate every little moment you have and make the most out of your experience - even if it means going for 6 am morning runs because the sunrise at Camp Harlem is so pretty. Now for the senior will:

NFTY PAR- I leave all future participants with the Brit. Please actually follow it.

BCTY- I leave you a smile and wave goodbye. And good luck next year lol.

Hannah Scott- I leave you with thousands of memories. Whether it was sleepovers, parties, wandering around Philly lost, or our endless facetime calls. Thank you for being my best friend since freshman year and always making me laugh.

Marissa Magasiny- I leave you with one of those huge teddy bears from costco because I know how much you would love one of those. I am not leaving you with anything else because no matter which college you pick I know that we will still be seeing each other.

Delaney Magasiny- I leave you with a plane ticket to Florida because you are coming to visit me.

Eli Tenenbaum- I leave you with my country music playlist so you can finally learn the superior music genre. I also leave you with an endless amount of money to make up for all of the free therapy you have given me this year.

Mia Fremder- I leave you with the best gluten free pizza in the world because you deserve it. I also leave you with an amazing workout to make up for that pizza because we gotta stay skinny legends.

Naomi Israeli- I leave you with a really big hug because I miss you and love you girl.

Anna Schwartz- I leave you with an inhaler because everytime we hang out we ending up laughing and can't breathe.

Shayna Saltzberg- I leave you with an infinite amount of patience because I know I used up all of yours this year as a membership chair. I also leave you with my last two brain cells because they can be really fun and are usually where we end up coming up with new member programs so I'm sure you can use them for something good.

Ezra Briskin- I leave you with a can of lysol and disinfectant wipes for that creepy room in your basement. I'm very sorry.

Recce Ratliff- I leave you with a pair of laces for your timberlands because you know the way I wear mine looks better. I also leave you the haunting memory of that time you gave me a back massage with relaxing music and fed me caramel m&ms because that was wack.

Mel Wolfson, Kylie Talerico, Makenzie Ratliff- I leave you three with all my love and my legacy.

Ari Beal, Ben Beal, Victor Vernick, and 6 other mystery NFTY PAR alum- I leave y'all with a nfty par chapstick. And an apology to Ben and Ari for any drama this might start.

The Last Will and Testament of Rachel Elise Eisenman

Sydnee Ostroff, I leave you selfies, boy talk, gossip, brunch, some of my geography knowledge, and literally all of my love. It's crazy to me that we have known each other since forever, but NFTY is what brought us close. I love you forever. Take care of KIFTY for me :)

Ezra Briskin, I leave you the responsibility of NFTY-PAR's regional DJ. I have never met anybody with such impeccable taste in music, please expose the rest of the region to this greatness, and may the JBL speaker be your greatest possession.

Andrew Flatt, I leave you the biggest, tightest hugs ever. I don't think I have ever met somebody who gives better hugs than you do. I also leave you endless bottles of Gatorade (especially blue) and Powerade.

Lucas Golluber, I leave you complete control over the NFTY-PAR pictures google drive. Have fun trying to figure out how to handle the complete lack of storage on that thing. Keep taking pictures, they are truly something special. I also leave you my babysitting job, because I'm pretty sure we all know those girls love you more than me.

Jake Weitzman, I leave you all the siyyums and camp songs you could ever play. You're the best.

Ari Beal, I leave you a lot of lululemon and facetime calls.

Danielle Strauss, thank you for making KIFTY and NFTY so fun. You have been the best mentor and advisor and I can't wait to see where KIFTY goes with you in the lead.

NFTY-PAR Regional Board of 2016-2017, I know you probably won't see this, but thank you for making me love NFTY-PAR. I remember coming to my first event (rip SLK) as a freshman and feeling instantly welcomed by the board. I looked up to you then and I look up to you now.

PAR Seniors 2020, I know we've been a small grade, but I truly to love you all. Of course this isn't the senior year we expected, but I'm glad to have had the last 4 years with you.

President Elijah M. Weitzman, I leave you the list of quotes I made from board meetings. If you actually want it, I will send it to you because it is truly iconic.

Anna Schwartz, I leave you cuddles and facemasks and all the good vibes. Your strength amazes me every single day and I am so grateful to have spent this year on board with you.

Abby Hart, I leave you enough cowboy hats and yeehaws to last a lifetime. I love you a lot, cowgirl.

Shayna Saltzburg, I leave you car rides to meetings and the responsibility to keep having meetings at your house. Saltzburg House meetings are the best meetings. My KIFTY buddy forever.

Amanda, thank you for such a great year on board. You have turned me into a leader I never thought I could be. Thank you for putting up with me, I know it isn't easy.

Shayna Clair Pellen (aka mush), this year on board has created an unbreakable bond between us and I am so, so thankful for it. I leave you endless facetime calls, sleepovers, boy talks, and lots and lots of cheek squishes. You're gonna do great things. I love you forever broskie.

Mahayla Renee Meyer, I don't even know what to say to you because I might start crying while writing this. My best friend for all 4 years of high school, my person, my therapist, etc. I leave you cow TikToks, cuddles, 3am facetime breakdowns, adventures, and many more memories. I cannot wait to see where the next few years take us. I love you so much and I truly have no idea what I would do without you.

The Last Will and Testament of Jess Firstenberg

Par: I'm sorry I missed winsty and spring, but the last 15 events with you guys have been some of the best parts of my high school experience. I wish you guys all the luck in the world.

Kayla Talarico and Tianna Ginsberg: I miss you both boatloads and I know I wouldn't be where I am without either of you. Finish up freshman year and then come home to give me hugs.

Ethan Lane Miller: Thank you for convincing me to join tefty and helping me learn to love it. I'm so proud of you leading TOR over there in Texas, even if you still don't know what WEML means.

Matt Nussbaum: We interviewed Ethan when I was in 6th grade and you were in 10th. No one talked to me that night but you. If you hadn't, I wouldn't have been in tefty for long, and I never would have come to a par event. I have you to thank for introducing me to the people I've grown to love the most.

Kenz: You are the sweetest person I've ever met, never change.

Kylie: Thanks for replacing the Kayla sized hole in my heart and being my mom.

Jacob Benjamin Weitzman: Thanks for being my little freshman buddy, one of my best friends, and my third little brother.

Briana Schwartz: Thanks for letting me be your sidekick. I love watching you grow even though you're vertically challenged (that part is from Sam), I have so much faith in you, and I can't wait to see what you do next.

Delaney: Thanks for always supporting me and listening when I'm a mess.

Mel: Thanks for being the only person at Cherokee Sam and I both say hi to.

Reece: You were my first little. I remember when I texted you before hag mac 2016, you sounded like the nicest person and I couldn't wait to meet you. Thanks for picking me up when I'm down and always finding a way to make me laugh.

Zoë: You're the coolest. Our panera dates are the best and I love being crazy with you 24/7.

Naomi: Thanks for our late night gossip sessions in the bunks and helping me realize I'm headed in the right direction. Play me back in cup pong.

Ben Beal: Thanks for being the most considerate person I know.

Katie: I leave you red silly puddy, dan + shay tickets, good decisions and 17/21 of my heart. I love you so much, you're never allowed to stop talking to me.

Hannah: We've been through a lot but you'll always be that 7 year old girl I met in services right after you moved here. I remember you brought your American girl doll and I was so jealous because I wasn't allowed to bring mine. I can't wait to watch you continue to succeed. The big world out there is going to love you almost as much as I do. You'll always be the Shauna to my Shayna.

Gill: The first thing that comes to mind is how much I love your sense of humor. You're my go to bunkmate / roommate, and Israel was the best trip of my life because I got to spend it with you.

Elijah Matthew Weitzman: We've kinda been stuck together for awhile now but I wouldn't change it for anything. Thanks for pushing me to be the best me I can be and encouraging me to stick around. Most importantly: thanks for helping me prove our moms right to Ethan.

Lexie: Thanks for being the best coworker, friend, and youth director all rolled into one.

Tefty: You guys got this. Thank you for turning me into a leader.

My Dumb Dumb: Thanks for being the most fun person to fight with and pick on. Our car rides will never get old. Make par and tefty your own, try not to murder Eddie, and take care of my favorite thing in the world: Mocha. Don't tell anyone but I'm going to miss you.

Lastly, I wanted to share my favorite life lesson I've learned on my NFTY journey... something from my time at the URJ Kutz Camp. Welcome Home: being a part of something special doesn't make you special. Something is special because you are a part of it.

With Love and Laughter,
Shaina Belle Kramer
